

IDUB training courses in cooperation with the publisher Springer Nature

We would like to invite employees and PhD students from the University of Warsaw to attend the latest online training courses, which are being conducted in a synchronous form, in cooperation with the Springer Nature publishing house.

Springer Nature is one of the world's largest publishers of scientific journals (over 3,000 titles, containing over seven million scientific papers). Among the journals published by SN, more than 1,100 journals may be found in the top quartile in the Scopus database; the company publishes many of the most influential journals in the world.

These workshops are being organised as part of the following 'Excellence Initiative - Research University' (IDUB) Actions: I.2.1 - 'Improvement of publishing capacities', V.3.1 - 'Development of UW staff competences', and V.3.5 - 'Programme for the development and improvement of the researchers' soft skills'.

The following training courses will take place by the end of 2021:
